Violin Vibes 2026 - hosted by Prestige Music Academy

Summer Violin Camp will be a 1-week, fun and challenging approach, to work with growing violinists to improve every aspect of their playing. The workshop will be led by our master violinist, Andrew Williams. In addition to solo and ensemble playing, Andrew will incorporate pedagogy, theory and practical applications into each day. Other guest artists will attend as well, bringing an array of expertise in areas such as rhythmic study and playing pop song covers.

Special Guest! Phoenix Symphony Violinist

Jing Zheng, will be a featured guest artist, leading one of the master classes.

From Bach to Rock

Violin students will explore many diverse ways the violin is used throughout history, up until today! From Bach to Rock will introduce students to American fiddle music, as well as the violin in a rock group. Think Dave Matthew's Band. The day will be spent learning songs in a group setting, as well as individual performance classes. Guest artists will include Jing Zheng, a member of the Phoenix Symphony, other artists in the Valley who are Masters of their craft, and will perform a wide-range of music. This week-long summer camp is sure to be inspirational, as well as providing a healthy challenge.
