Meet Our Instructors

Meet Allie
Woodwinds, Brass and Strings

Allie is the current band director at North High School in Phoenix. She previously taught elementary band and strings for 9 years before moving into her current position. Originally a Pennsylvania native, Allie received her Bachelor of Science in Music Education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, majoring on flute and piccolo. During her time in Phoenix, she has taught students who have participated in the ASU String Project, Greater Phoenix Honors Music Festival, and has led performances at two Phoenix Suns NBA games. She uses a "karate belt" reward system to motivate and encourage excellence from each of her students.

Congratulations to Our July 2025 Student of the Month:

Nika Massrour!

Nika is a violin student of Allie. She has been taking lessons at Prestige for 1 year and is a Rock Star on the Musical Ladder.

Nika's teacher says:

"Nika continues to surprise me with her natural musical talent. She learns very quickly and is motivated to practice and improve. I look forward to our lessons together each week!"

Teachers: Don't forget to make your student of the month nominations.
Check your email for the nomination form!
