In each instance, the Foundation maintains variance power and legal ownership of agency endowment funds and as such continues to report the funds as cash and investments of the Foundation. However, in accordance with SFAS No. 136, a liability has been established for the fair value of the funds, which is generally equivalent to the present value of future payments expected to be made to the NPO's.

Part XI Line 2D Change in Split Interest Trust = -228,901 add Cost of Direct Donor Benefit = -139,722 less Net Income from Fundraising Events = 11,528 add Fundraising Events Goods & Services Contributions = 151,250 add Other= 385

Part X Line 2 Note 1 - Income tax status - The Foundation qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code (The Code) and, accordingly, there is no provision for income taxes. In addition, the Foundation qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170 of The Code and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. Income determined to be unrelated business taxable income would be taxable. The Foundation evaluates its uncertain tax positions, if any, on a continual basis through review of its policies and procedures, review of its regular tax filings and discussions with outside experts. The Foundation's federal return of organization exempt from income tax (form 990) for fiscal 2023, 2024, and 2025 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

Part V Line 4 The organizations endowment funds are maintained to support the charitable purposes of the foundation in perpetuity. The primary objective of the endowment program is to provide a stable and sustainable source of funding for grants, scholarships, and other programmatic and operational activities that advance the foundations mission. In accordance with the foundations board-approved spending policy, an annual distribution of 4% of a 12-quarter rolling average of endowment fund market values is appropriated to support charitable activities. This spending policy is designed to balance current spending needs with the goal of preserving the long-term purchasing power of the endowment. Endowment funds include both donor-restricted endowments, which are subject to the terms of the applicable fund agreements, and board-designated (quasi-endowment) funds established by the governing board to function as endowments for long-term charitable purposes. Investment returns in excess of annual spending are retained to grow the endowment and protect it against inflation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Program Service Expenses: 211,956, Grants and allocations: 207,500, Revenue: 0 Catholic Giving Circle - The Giving Circle invites individuals from all backgrounds to participate in a distinctive granting process. Members join by contributing a membership fee, which is pooled together with funds from the Foundation's Forever Fund endowments (CARE, LIFE, COMMUNITY, MUSIC), operating funds, and legacy gifts. Each year, organizations present brief pitches to the members, and the community votes to decide which causes receive funding. This model allows the community to directly influence how the Foundation's discretionary funds are allocated, empowering members to address pressing local needs. This also provides an opportunity for members to be introduced to organizations within the community that may not have otherwise come across. Since 2015, over $1.6 million has been granted.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Program Service Expenses: 3,457, Grants and allocations: 0, Revenue: 0 End-of-Life Planning Program - The Catholic Community Foundation assists individuals in the education and creation of end-of-life plans, with a primary focus on encouraging charitable giving as part of their legacy. The Foundation partners with estate planning attorneys, funeral homes, financial advisors, and end-of-life care facilities to provide comprehensive education through its Get Your Affairs in Order seminars, which are primarily hosted at parishes across the Diocese of Phoenix. Additionally, the Foundation specializes in helping individuals and nonprofits with the liquidation and realization of complex gifts, such as real estate, securities, business interests, and more, ensuring a smooth process for both donors and recipients.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Program Service Expenses: 0, Grants and allocations: 0, Revenue: 51,517 Charitable Gift Annuity Program - The Catholic Community Foundation offers a charitable gift annuity (CGA) program that provides flexible giving options for donors and nonprofits alike. This program allows any donor to establish a CGA and designate a charity of their choice to receive benefits upon their passing, as long as the CGA remains 'above water.' Notably, any donor CGA that is above water at the time of their passing will be added to an existing endowment held at the Foundation or used to create a family foundation in the deceased individual's name if the remaining amount exceeds $20,000. Additionally, nonprofits can white label the CGA program, enabling them to offer this option to their communities while CCF manages the administrative responsibilities, including regulatory compliance, legal documentation, investment management, contract formulation, and annual 1099 filing. This dual approach ensures a seamless experience for both donors and nonprofit partners.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Program Service Expenses: 788,450, Grants and allocations: 453,572, Revenue: 365,921 The remaining program service revenue can be attributed to other ancillary services offered by the Foundation, including the administrative fees for managing and investing agency securities, not attributed to individual endowments, donor-advised funds, and gift annuities. The remaining program service expenses relate to program overhead that has not been allocated to programs described above, as well as other grants that are unrelated to the other programs described above.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11B: The completed form 990 is emailed to the Board of Directors and Finance Committee Members. Additionally, the form 990 is reviewed with the Finance Committee prior to electronic filing

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12C: All directors, members of committees, and employees of the Foundation shall scrupulously avoid any conflict between their own respective interests and the interest of the Foundation in any and all actions taken by them on behalf of the Foundation. Situations where directors or members derive financial benefits from the board or committee service should be avoided. However, in the event any directors or members of the foundation should have any direct or indirect interest in, or relationship with, any individual or organization which proposes to enter into any transaction with the foundation for the sale, purchase, lease or rental of property or to render or employ services, personal or otherwise, or receive pecuniary consideration from the foundation in the form of a fee or grant, such directors or members shall forthwith give the board of directors of the foundation notice with full factual disclosures, of such interest or relationship and shall thereafter absent themselves during both explicit review of the matter. Officers are required to complete this information during the onboarding process and this information is reaffirmed and updated annually.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15B: A formal compensation study is completed every 3 years and is initiated by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Committee. The Compensation Committee is a sub-committee of the Board of Directors and is charged with summarizing the results of comparative salary ranges for the CEO and CFO using a professional services firm and their compensation recommendations. The results are forwarded to the Executive Committee to formulate a compensation package, benefits, and duties of the position. Prior to approval of the executive leadership compensation, the Executive Committee meets in executive session to discuss and also advise on other staff positions. The results are then included in the organization's budget which is approved in total by the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: All information is made available on the Foundation's website (ccfphx.org) and Candid, a central source of information on U.S. nonprofits. The Foundation's articles of incorporation, by-laws, financial statements and Form 990 are all available to the public upon request. The Foundation does not make the conflict of interest policy documents available to the public.

Form 990, Part XI, Line 9: Change in Split Interest Trust = -228,901 less Interest Expense = 477,495 add Administrative Service Fee Expense to Invested Funds = 1,073,744 (Total administrative fee activity net of Agency Fund administrative fee activity)

Form 990, Part VIII, Line 11: The Foundation holds a limited partnership interest in Exeter Partners LP (EIN 33-0771937). As of the filing date of this return for the tax year ended June 30, 2026, the organization has not received Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) from the partnership for its tax year ended December 31, 2025. Amounts related to this investment have been reported based on the partnerships year-end investment statements. The organization will amend this return, and will file Form 990-T if required, should the Schedule K-1, when received, differ materially from the amounts reported.

Form 990, Part IX, Line 25: The Foundation reports expenses by function, which are program services, management and general, and fundraising, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Directly identifiable expenses are charged to the function benefited. Shared expenses are allocated as follows. Salaries and benefits are allocated by annual staff time studies. Facilities, insurance, technology and communication services, and lease expense are allocated by FTE count based on those time studies. The fund accounting, CRM, and grant processing system of the Foundation is allocated by the time-study percentages of its regular users. Costs of activities that combine program and fundraising content are allocated among functions only when the activity meets the purpose, audience, and content criteria of ASC 958-720. Otherwise, the entire cost is reported as fundraising. Allocation methods are applied consistently and reviewed annually.
